

Royal Agricultural Society of England

Nomination form for The Bledisloe Gold Medal for Landowners

The Bledisloe Gold Medal remit:

“The award may be made to a landowner who has demonstrated outstanding achievement in the successful land management and development of an agricultural estate in England”.

Please use block capitals

(All nominations will be dealt with in the strictest confidence)

NOMINEE: Name:
Address:

AGENT: Name:
(if applicable) Address:

PROPOSER: Name:
Address:

SECOND
OPINION: Name:
Address:

Royal Agricultural Society of England

REASONS FOR NOMINATION:

1. Is the Nominee a landowner? Yes No

2. Please provide a brief summary of the nominee's achievements on the estate and an outline of the enterprises taking place.

3. How long has the nominee been running the estate?

4. Have these achievements taken place on his/her own land? Yes No
If 'NO' please state where?

5. Is he/she a member of the RASE? Yes No Don't Know

6. Have you (the Proposer) discussed this nomination with the elected member of RASE council for the area in question? Yes No

7. Any other comments?

Please return to: Chris Taylor, Royal Agricultural Society of England, Warwickshire CV8 2LZ
Direct line: 024 7685 8252