

Guidelines for Applications RASE Excellence in Practical Farming and Business Award

The Award

Excellence in Practical Farming and Business Award

The Prize

An outdoor plaque and certificate together with honorary membership of the Society.

The Candidate

The award will recognise an individual setting a lead for other farmers on either a regional or national basis. Open to farmers and farm managers.

The Submission

The submission should include the name, qualifications and age of the candidate and a description (of not more than 500 words) explaining why the candidate should be considered for this award.

In particular judges will be looking for candidates who have:

- demonstrated excellent farming practice
- combined superior production and marketing with environmental and welfare considerations.
- worked to transfer ideas and skills to other farmers and to communicate with the wider public.
- shown expertise in business management and wider diversification.